

Decorum in Shul – A High Holy Day Story from Arthur Federman

One year we were at a High Holy Day service and there was a little lull before the next part of the service and people started to have a little chat.

The late Mo Joseph called out "Where do you think you are in a United Synagogue!"