

Not so 'Happy' Birthday!

– A High Holy Day Story from Danielle Samuels

Howard's birthday fell on YK when he was much younger, and his sister bought him a gift which he opened before going to Shul. She had "thoughtfully" bought him a recipe book containing beautiful photos of food!

Howard's birthday fell on YK again in more recent years and in his sermon, Michael Foulds wished him a happy birthday and commented that at least it saved Howard having to get a birthday cake that year!
